

ELL Community Engagement Planning Tool

Use this planning tool as a means to kick off your IELCE program's engagement with the ELL communities you serve. Keep in mind the elements of the Culture Brokering Model, as well as those you might want around the table from the communities you serve.

Identified Problems

What is the problem your IELCE program is trying to solve, and how might you voice this to partners within your ELL community? Are they shared issues?

Desired Outcomes

What is in it for the communities you serve, as well as your organization? What are the mutual benefits?

Engagement Strategies

Describe how you will establish links and develop lasting relationships with the communities you will serve. Will cultural brokering take place? If so, who will facilitate it?

Possible Constraints

What may get in the way of continued success and shared accountability?

Key Activities

What will your regular and revolving actions items be? Who is responsible?
